I love origami and riding my bike. My dad is very hands-on and loves fixing things by himself. After moving to Bowfin, he has fixed our fireplace with just one extra screw left over after the reassembly. My mom likes cooking, and my sister loves to play with her dolls.

6. Who's your hero?

My mom is very inspired by her brother who raised her up more like a cool dad. She says he is a very calm person in every situation. I'm getting ready to test him when he comes over for a visit in the near future.

7. Do you have a favorite book?

"Charlie and the chocolate factory"

8. If you could go anywhere, where would you go?

I would go to Japan. My mom always talks about revisiting Singapore so she can come back to great home cooked meals by her best friend after a full day of hopping around in the city. My dad wants to go on a trekking tour in the Himalayas in Nepal.

9. Tell me something interesting about yourself/yourself

I have 11 nicknames.

La Chaîne des Rôtisseurs by Walt Heinzer (341 Sailfish)

(Editor's note: You've probably been seeing Walt walking his dog, Fifi, on Bowfin St. He's now also a BI contributor! Here's some information about an organization he's been an avid member of)

"The Confrérie de la Chaîne des Rôtisseurs is a worldwide society based in Paris. The chapter in the United States is now in its 60th year with about 6,000 gourmards, gourmets, astronomes, chefs, restaurateurs, hoteliers, oenologists, winery owners, sommeliers, food and wine educators, and others interested in the finest of dining and life experiences and enjoying the camaraderie of friends at dinners

4. What's your favorite restaurant?

I love Domino's pizza and Japanese food from good authentic restaurants. My dad likes Chelokababi in Sunnyvale, mom likes Vivace Ristorante in Belmont, and my sister loves any place that has ice-cream on the menu.

5. What are your family's hobbies?
