

and events. The tradition of the royal guild of goose roasters of 1248 was revived in Paris in 1950, and we now carry on those traditions.” In the SF Bay Area we have several local Bailliages (Local Chapters).

Hillsborough; Monterey; Napa Sonoma; Sacramento; San Francisco; Silicon Valley
Some of us belong to multiple chapters. In our case Hillsborough & San Francisco.

We just enjoyed an event at The Warehouse FC Sunday 4/24/22. The owner and Chefs are members of the SF Bailliage. The warehouse event was earmarked with beautiful center pieces of food, and the group photos, later to appear in our national Magazine Cuvee.

<https://magazine.chaineus.org/>

One aspect of belonging to this club is the sharing of events worldwide. We have been fortunate to attend some over the top events, when we travel internationally. One that comes to mind is the Grand Chapître in Firenze (April 2014), we received special treatment, entertainment, and access to the galleries that tourists never see.

The Chaîne also has a foundation that provides scholarships to aspiring chefs and sommeliers. Contests are also held for best chef & sommelier and open to members to attend. Their website is www.chaineus.org

Members enjoying a club function

A decorative centerpiece

NOW APPEARING AT HILLBARN THEATRE

Apr. 21 – May 8, 2022 (Preview April 21)

Book and Lyrics by Joe DiPietro
Music by Jimmy Roberts

This celebration of the mating game takes on the truths and myths behind that contemporary conundrum know as ‘the relationship.’ Act I explores the journey from dating and waiting to love and marriage, while Act II reveals the agonies and triumphs of in-laws and newborns, trips in the family car and pick-up techniques of the geriatric set. This hilarious revue pays tribute to those who have loved and lost, to those who have fallen on their face at the portal of romance, to those who have dared to ask, ‘Say, what are you doing Saturday night?’

Parental Advisory Notice: This show contains sexual/mature content and adult language, rated PG13*