

The Bowfin Inquirer

October, 2022

Rest in Peace:

Kerstin H. Scherman

1940-2022

The B.I. learned of the recent passing of “original” Bowfiner, Kerstin, who had resided at 328 since the founding of our block. A few years back Kerstin contributed to this paper vintage shots of our sandy, partially built-up street. A little additional research on the internet found that was not her FIRST contribution to a newspaper! R.I.P, Kerstin.

RESULT 1 OF 1

News Article

San Francisco Chronicle | Friday, Oct 23, 1998 | San Francisco, CA | Page:26

1 of 2 matches

Scherman;Kerstin

vi-

Sympathy for Gates

Editor — It astounds me that the United States government is so intent on going after Bill Gates simply because he invented a better mouse trap. This stinks of pure politics.

KERSTIN H. SCHERMAN

Foster City

“Navel Gazing” – by Jerry Lerman (344)

How many haiku

syllables are needed to capture my essence?

Aaron’s Answers

(Above) A view of one of the Soviet launch sites in Cuba. (Below) A Jupiter missile at an American missile site in Turkey

Question: When I was 12, I recall a scary time which came to be known as the Cuban Missile Crisis. Not everyone today might know of this development in American history, but I think it was important. Can you briefly describe what happened, how dangerous it was (or seemed), and how it was resolved? -Jerry Aaron’s Answer: In October of 1959, the United States of America signed a proposal that would allow them to place nuclear weapons in NATO states to threaten the Soviet Union. The government later went to the NATO parliament and appealed to the (continued on page 3)